*Tell Them/
Warn Them*

There have been times the Lord has given me messages with the tag, "Tell them and/or warn them," accompanying the revelations. I wrote an article a few years back containing a few of these revelations. At this time I feel impressed to review some of them and add to them some new and recent ones.

Everywhere we look in the world today we see proverbial "houses of cards" teetering, moments from collapse. The Lord is warning His people: This is not the hour to be complacent. This is the time to be found in Him!

TELL THEM # 1

Years ago the Lord would use me to prophesy with unction in congregational settings. My heart would pound; the Lord's presence would roll over me and my breathing would become labored while I prophesied. During that time, once when I was alone in prayer in my bedroom, something unusual happened. An unction fell on me as if I were to give out a corporate word. Then I received the word:

"Tell them, all those who desire to build a holy habitation for My Presence to dwell, tell them this: I dwell with the broken and contrite of heart. Tell them to learn from Me what it means to be lowly."

Two Scripture references came to mind. The first:

"For thus says the high and exalted One who lives forever, whose name is Holy, 'I dwell {on} a high and holy place, and {also} with the contrite and lowly of spirit in order to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.'" (Isaiah 57:15 NASB)

Tell Them/Warn Them

The word in Hebrew for contrite used in this Scripture according to Strong's Expository Dictionary means: "to crush into powder like chalk; to be penitent." Penitent according to Webster's Dictionary means: "to feel sorrow for misdeeds or sins." The Lord lives with those who've allowed Him to crush them into powder – into a place where true repentance can come forth – so He can revive them and live through them.

The second Scripture:

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light".
(Matthew 11:28-30 NKJV)

The Greek word for rest here, according to Strong's Concordance, means "refreshing, take ease, rest." The Complete Word Study Dictionary New Testament says it means: "inward tranquility while one performs necessary labor."

According to the last definition, the rest of God is given during work. One of the ways to know if you are moving in the rest of God is awareness of a supernatural refreshing that envelopes you even though you are hard at work. If you are doing your own works in your own strength, then you will be heavily laden, weighed down, irritable and anxiety ridden.

Jesus instructed us to learn from Him lowliness, which is humility. When we look at the life of Jesus in an effort to learn from Him, we see that Jesus only did what the Father was doing. "Therefore Jesus answered and was saying to them, 'Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of Himself, unless it is something He sees the Father doing'" (John 5:19 NASU).

Humility is surrendering your heavily-laden works unto the Lord. You press in to God through prayer and meditation and grab hold of the works He created for you before the foundation of the world.

"For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them." (Ephesians 2:7-10 NASU)

TELL THEM #2

Jonce had a dream I was sitting at a round table with a denominational pastor and a Jewish believer I did not know. Liturgical churches have a Scripture reading for each day and the pastor was going to read the Scripture and expound on it. He spent a moment glancing at it and then he said he couldn't read it; he could not handle the topic. He said it was the Scripture dealing with the tower that fell in Siloam. I knew the Scripture he was alluding to.

Tell Them/Warn Them

"Or do you suppose that those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, were worse culprits than all the Men who live in Jerusalem?"
(Luke 13:4 NASB)

I told the pastor I could explain it. As I stood up a supernatural boldness came over me. To my left, on a blue wall, appeared a portrait of my son Alex who went home to be with the Lord when he was nine years old. The anointing fell on me as I said, "The Lord is interested in eternal things and He uses the bad according to His eternal purposes. Our life is but a vapor down here. He moves according to His eternal purposes." I then heard the words, "Tell them."

WARN THEM

One of the ways God warns people is through dreams. Job said, "He speaks in dreams, in visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on people as they lie in their beds. He whispers in their ears and terrifies them with warnings" (Job 33:15-16 NLT). Job goes on to tell us the purpose of these warnings: to turn us away from pride; to turn us from our repugnant independence to dependency on the living God. "That He may withdraw man from his purpose and cut off pride from him [disgusting him with his own disappointing self-sufficiency]" (Job 33:17 AMP).

Many different "fronts" converging over our country are about to collide and create "the perfect storm." God is issuing a warning. In His love and mercy God wants us, His people, to be ready. I would like to share a few warning dreams I have collected as well as my "Warn them" directives.

WARN THEM #1

Not too long ago I had a dream that three people were aspiring to be part of "Performance Church" – one that relies on the works of man. I watched them as they tried to position themselves in man's kingdom. The dream ended with me standing on the roof of a beautiful building that looked like a portico of the temple. The building was white marble with gold leaf, and the roof was flat. It was suspended in the air and I was about 40 feet above Performance Church represented by a local seeker-friendly organization. Behind me I saw a huge wave coming. It was around 30-40 feet tall. It was not – I repeat, not the big wave that is yet to come, but it was big enough to do a lot of damage. I started warning people in Performance Church to seek higher ground.

Finally a man gave me a yellow microphone (yellow means prayer, and thus amplification in prayer for these people). I repeated my cry with the aid of the mic so everyone could hear. I was able to convince the intercessors and some church fathers to come up on the roof with me. The others could have come, but they preferred to scream and panic. The wave came and wiped them out. End of dream.

Now, as I am writing, the Lord is singing a song in my spirit that speaks of getting up on top of the roof. Prophetically it refers to attaining a higher perspective, above a natural outlook of our lives, so we can see heaven's reality much better. It speaks of entering a place hidden in Jesus' love where only quieting one's heart before Him can take us. Our God is a fortress, a strong tower to those who put their trust in Him. If we are not hidden in His love, fear will overtake us in the days to come (see 1 John 4:18).

WARN THEM #2

"The Lord has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm" (Nahum 1:3 Amplified).

Recently (May 2012), I dreamed I saw numerous whirlwinds touching down on earth. I understood each whirlwind was falling on specific individuals. In my dream I heard the Father say He was going to send whirlwinds to His children who had strayed from Him and His ways. He was going to set them apart for Himself. I can't tell you how much love was communicated through this revelation. In my dream I was told to warn people and actually felt burdened with the command.

We can easily discount warnings and say it is directed to the "other guy." Before doing so, please consider the following prophetic words:

May 27, 2007

"You have approached a section of My Holy Mountain [that climbs] 90 degrees straight up. Ninety degrees represents Psalm 90 where Moses prayed, "Confirm for us the work of our hands; yes, confirm the work of our hands." (verse 17 NASB)

You are saying, How am I going to get up this mountain? But I am saying, Look at your feet, because I have given you hinds' feet for high places (see Psalm 18:33). I have also dropped down My three-strand cord – the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit – for you to grab hold of.

Do not try to climb this section of My Mountain horizontally. That represents the horizontal section of My cross dealing with the brethren. They do not have the answers to your questions. Many of My people are walking horizontally. I am sending My angels to get them to walk vertically.

You must get to the next level because below that I am coming like a whirlwind, for I come as a whirlwind. This whirlwind is going to suck the garbage out of My Church. And you will see it as it touches down on My Church throughout the nation.

So do not be tempted to go to the brethren instead of Me. For I call the wind Moriah. Moriah can mean "God is my teacher." I am coming to you as the Teacher, the Counselor. At My throne are wisdom, understanding, and instruction that the brethren cannot give you. Remember this the next time you want to go to the phone instead of the throne."

Tell Them/Warn Them

July 10, 2007

I am building a house in this place for My glory to dwell. I am working on a section where two corners form a 90-degree angle. I told you what the 90-degree angle refers to: Psalm 90 where Moses prayed, “Confirm for us the work of our hand; yes, confirm the work of our hands.” (verse 17)

I sent the hammer of My Word when I said now is the time for you to come to Me for instruction, not [to] your brothers, for the brethren do not even know the right questions, let alone the right answers. I am working on this in you now. The hammer of My Word hit the nail of crucifixion into the workings of your hands, but it went in crooked. Therefore I am taking it out and doing it again. This is a crucial point in My building and I need you to be doing My will.

When I prayed about the whirlwind dream and prophetic words, I had a vision of Jesus separating pork chops from a pork roast. I inquired of the Lord about the vision, and He said He was separating His people from the defilement of “group think.” This phenomenon has crept into the Church, but it can’t replace what God intended – his true plumb line – which is for us to wholeheartedly seek Him whose ways are not like ours. That should be the norm in the Church.

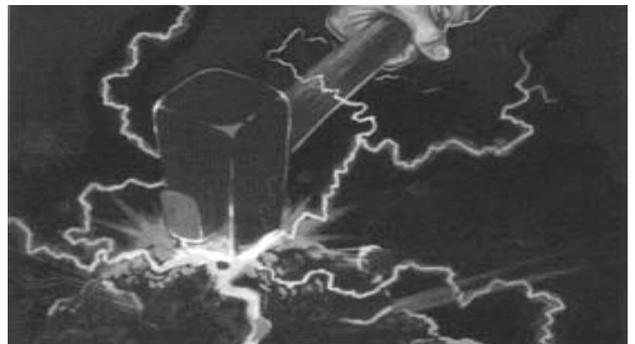

“And He said to him, 'YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND.' This is the great and foremost commandment.”
(Matthew 22:37-38 NASU)

We will never come into the fullness of God with strength in numbers – a group think mentality. The triune God wants our hearts! He wants to live in us, flow in us, and be in deep relationship with us. He wants us to know Him; know His heart, His mind, His ways.

As I saw Him separating the pork chops He said, “Everyone mourns apart.” I thought of this Scripture: “The land will mourn, every family by itself..., every family by itself and their wives by themselves” (Zechariah 12:12, 14 NASU).

We must acknowledge that we are spiritually impoverished. We must mourn over the fact that we, like David in his first attempt at bringing the glory of God into Jerusalem, are seeking His glory without the sacrifice of our flesh at every step. As a result of our seeking, meekness will then be established in us and we will inherit the land (see Matthew 5:1-5).

Brevity prevents me from delving into volumes of revelation pointing to the fact that deliverance from seeking the opinion of others

Tell Them/Warn Them

is a necessary prerequisite to moving in revival, but I will share one piece of revelation I received through multiple dreams. In these dreams I was telling various anointed church leaders that they did not pass the John 5:44 test, so they wouldn't be able to lead in the glory move of God. John 5:44 states: "How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and you do not seek the glory that is from the one and only God?" (NASU)

Jesus does not want us drawing strength from our associations and relationships. That type of dependence is toxic. The Lord wants us drawing strength from Him.

Nontoxic relationships are those the Lord puts together among those who have first been set apart for Him. These separated ones have not only learned how to belong to Jesus, but also how to be connected to others in a healthy way. Jesus accomplishes this transition in us through the "wilderness walk": "Who is this coming up from the wilderness leaning on her beloved?" (Song 8:5 NASU)

Love the Lord with all your heart, and then you will be healthy enough to love people as yourself and not treat them as idols. The Lord's heart is for us no longer to reach out to people for personal, political gain and a false sense of security; but rather be placed in the Body by Him according to His purposes.

"How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and you do not seek the glory that is from the one and only God?"

John 5:44 NASU

The Lord keeps telling me He is connecting people who have made the transition to call on Him. I had a vision of a clothes rack with empty wooden hangers separated from one another. I heard, "They have their mantles." I understood these anointed people have embraced the "wood of the cross" (the hangers), and have become separated for Him. I then saw the Lord put the hangers together in one group.

A few days later I had a vision of raw hamburgers being stacked in twos. Each one had a white paper separating them. The hamburgers represent those who have been through "the grinder," who have separated themselves for Jesus. These are people who will only go where He tells them to go, and do what He tells them to do. He will reconnect them to function together with His other separated ones. Even though they are right next to each other, holiness (the white paper) that separates them unto the Lord, is the divider between them.

In the book, The Final Quest, Rick Joyner said during the prophetic experience he had in heaven, someone there shared this with him:

"There is a marked difference between honoring one another in love and worshiping them. If we had understood this on earth, we would have treated others very differently. It is here, in the light of His glory, that we can fully perceive and understand one another, and therefore properly relate to each other."

Tell Them/Warn Them

Let us seek the glory of the One above so we can properly relate to His people here below.

WARNING #3: ECONOMIC CRISIS

In another dream, I was standing on a bridge overlooking an enormous wooden dock. (Wooden docks, boardwalks, represent the walk of the cross to me.) My mother, who went home to be with the Lord well over a decade ago, was standing on the dock. She was looking up at new cars that were elevated 30 feet in the air by yellow forklifts. Each car was a different bold color. None were spectacular vehicles; each was depicted as a middle-of-the-road American car that no one really wants to buy.

I understood this to be the “new vehicle,” the new means of ministry, the Lord has been promising those who are carrying the cross. Cross-Carrying Mother Church has a vision for “this new vehicle.” She has been lifting up this vision in prayer for years. (Yellow is a symbol of prayer for me.) These “vehicles” are for the mature (i.e., 30 feet, 30 being the number for maturity).

People looking for position in Pretense Church, those in the church whose hearts are far from the Lord, will not be interested in these vehicles. The cars are for the nobodies, if you will. People who know they are nothing without Jesus; who ascribe to Him the glory due Him.

I went down to the dock. As I approached my mom, whom I haven’t seen in such a long time, I said in a voice filled with emotion, “Mom!” She was filled with so much heavenly grace, she replied, “Diane! I miss you so much!”

Now, you aren’t going to get this part if you did not grow up on the south shore of Long Island, so I have to explain. We were big on seafood! Especially fried belly clams, which are almost impossible to get now. When you can get them, they are expensive.

I said to my mom, “Since we are by the beach, let’s go for some fried clams.” She replied, “Let’s go to a diner instead. There is going to be an economic crash. It is important not to spend money on unnecessary things right now.”

The scene changed, and I was then with a couple who tithes faithfully. At the time of the dream they were experiencing some economic hardship. I told them that tithing is good, but the current strategy is to cut back on unnecessary things and then the money will come.

That was the end of the dream.

I know this is a word of wisdom. It has little, if anything to do with saving a few extra bucks each week. It has to do with obedience. Throughout the dream I heard, “Tell the brethren.” I believe the Lord is calling the cross-carriers to a strategy of fasting from spending. That strategy will activate the grace to navigate us through an upcoming economic crisis. Not a total fast, but a fast from the frills: it’s okay to go to the diner, just not to spend $25 on a plate of fried claims à la carte.

We don’t have to get religious about it. God calls us to curtail our spending, not out of necessity, but as a sacrifice. The Lord will direct you.

A woman offered the following testimony immediately after I gave out this word.

She was in the mall and she was looking to buy some shoes she did not need. (You know us women and shoes!) She felt convicted, but she bought them anyway. High-tailing it out of the mall, she was confronted with a $120 ticket on her windshield. “He who is able to accept this, let him accept it” (Matthew 19:12 NASB).

Tell Them/Warn Them

PLAGUES

In another dream I had gone to view a clinic that was opening at the Broadway mall. (There really is a Broadway mall in my region. It obviously represents choosing the “broad way” as opposed to the narrow.) An angel of death was at this clinic. He appeared as a Medical Examiner (ME). This demon has a right to examine souls.

There were thousands of new beds in the clinic. Wherever there wasn't room for a bed, new leather lounge chairs, the kind you sleep on if you are staying overnight with a patient, were squeezed into the tight spaces. The Lord's focus was on the lounge chairs. His message concerning the lounge chairs was this: This is not the time to be found at ease. “Woe to those who are at ease in Zion” (Amos 6:1 NASB).

I turned to the ME and said, “It looks like you are preparing for a...” He completed my sentence: “Plague? Oh, yes, and I have set up a clinic at JFK airport too.”

In the dream I was given the task of rescuing wounded Christians who were locked in cages in the ME's apartment. On his mantle were crowns he'd stolen from them through the grip he had on wounded areas of their lives.

In a room in his apartment were three beds with quilts. For me quilts are a symbol of God putting things together piece by piece. I believe the three beds represent the faith walk of the Trinity that had also been stolen from the victims: “Now the just shall live by faith; but if anyone draws back, My soul has no pleasure in him” (Hebrews 10:38 NKJV). God would have us walk precept upon precept, line upon line (see Isaiah 28:10), but many people are unwilling.

The ME came after me, but he couldn't get into my apartment. It was my Father's apartment, and I had a golden key to it. He couldn't enter because it was all wood (the cross).

I believe there is a “Noah's ark” (I've seen it in dreams and visions) for the people of God. But those who remain wounded will get hit by the enemy. We must examine ourselves to see if we are truly in the faith by asking the Lord to show us if there is any unclean way in our hearts. If we haven't let the Lord into the wounded areas of our lives, we are shrinking back from Him.

In my own life the Lord has taken enough garbage out of my heart that it could pack the Staten Island landfill where the World Trade Center rubble was dumped. And He is not done with me yet. He is not done with you yet either. No one is as free as Jesus died to make them.

God wants us to turn our wounds into wellsprings of life. The times we get hit are meant to strengthen us. These are opportunities to minimize the bad and seek out the goodness of God, to show Him we can adjust our sails (our responses) to the winds of adversity. They are meant to turn us into mighty warriors, not to make us victims who are taken captive by the enemy through our unhealed wounds.

Interestingly, the scrap metal from the Twin Towers was used to build the battleship USS New York, which is used for special operations against terrorists.

The Lord gave me a dream to confirm these thoughts. In it I was prophesying, “Without allowing the Lord access to work in your hearts, you won’t be empowered with the new level of power that God will soon be r e l e a s i n g . ”

Many people are trying to take the shortcut around the cross. There is no shortcut. We must hold on to our crowns by way of the crosswalk; let no man, woman or demon from hell, wound us and steal them!

WARNING #4: THE PERFECT STORM

In another dream I was on a cruise ship that Jesus high-jacked. I believe this represents a remnant of His Body that He is now taking for Himself out of the world, out of religion, and out of the “cruise ship” mentality (woe to those at ease in Zion), as opposed to a “battle ship” walk with God.

On the ship were many rooms both big and small. All the rooms were located along intricate green hallways. I believe this means He is leading His people to their proper place through His words of life (the color green) in a very complex fashion.

In the dream I had access to Jesus. I said to Him, “I heard from the crew that we are going to get hit by a big wave en route to Cartagena.” When I thought of our destination, Cartagena, I thought of the movie, Romancing the Stone. Cartagena was the place where a huge gem was found. The correlation is obvious. Jesus is our rock. Romance with Him is the greatest love affair the world has ever known. He Himself is the pearl of great price.

“Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking fine pearls, and upon finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had and bought it.” (Matthew 13:45-46 NASB)

The kingdom of heaven is the Church’s destination. The storm’s purpose is to bring us to this realization. Jesus told me the wave was building up and heading toward us from Hawaii, and it would hit us in one week.

Seven is the number of God’s completeness. This “wave” is going to cause that which

Many people are trying to take the shortcut around the cross. There is no shortcut.

Tell The/Warn Them

needs to be completed to be completed. To me Hawaii is a symbol because of its motto: “The land is healed in perpetual righteousness.” If we were walking in more of the Lord’s righteousness, we would be taking more ground for the kingdom.

“[If] My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sin and will heal their land.” (2 Chronicles 7:14 NASB)

In the dream we stopped at a port. I asked the Captain, “Why can’t we stay in port for the week?” Referring to the wave, he said, “We have to face it.” We went out to sea, and I saw a destroyer on the ocean. I didn’t understand till later what, or rather who, the destroyer was.

“See, it is I who created the blacksmith who fans the coals into flame and forges a weapon fit for its work. And it is I who have created the destroyer to work havoc.” (Isaiah 54:16 NIV)

The precursor waves were huge – anywhere between ten and 30 feet tall. I saw a big one coming and I said to the Captain, “Is that it?” He responded, “No.” I saw a white ship get wiped out by it, and I knew it was a ministry.

I continued my chatter with Jesus. “Since

You high-jacked this boat, why can’t You highjack the destroyer, because it is better protected for a severe wave.”

He responded, “I can’t do that. We have to take it on in this vessel. I had hoped the boat would have been wider.” I immediately understood what He meant. That terminology is taken from this apostolic prayer by Paul:

“For this reason I kneel before the Father, from whom his whole family in heaven and on earth derives its name. I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all t h e f u l l n e s s o f God.” (Ephesians 3:14-19 NIV, emphasis mine)

Jesus was hoping the remnant Church would know how wide and how deep His love is for them before this thing hits. You see, His perfect love will wipe out the fear associated with the perfect storm:

“There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves

Tell Them/Warn Them

punishment, and the one who fears is not perfected in love.” (1 John 4:18 NASB)

I then, in the dream, went on to warn some church fathers about their connection to Jezebel. They needed to be cleansed of association with “her.”

After that I went to my cabin, which I was sharing with someone who represented an aspect of Jeremiah 15:19: “If you extract the precious from the vile you will be my spokesman.” This person represented “the vile” – the social outcasts. If we can extract “the precious” – what God has implanted in those who are reviled – we are on the path to being God’s spokespersons.

My room number was 3704. I knew it represented Psalm 37:4. (I wish I could tell you I have such a firm grasp on Scripture that I had this one memorized, but I didn’t.) It reads: “The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear Him, and rescues them” (Psalm 34:7 NASB).

In the next scene, I was picking my son up from school. He represented intercessors to me. I saw someone whose name means “warrior.” I said to her, “We escaped the wave. How did we do it? I have no recollection of what happened.”

She said, “You gave us a wake-up call at 2:30. We got up and prepared ourselves. The wave hit, and we made it over.” That was the end of the dream.

I believe 2:30 speaks of the message of Psalm 23: intimately knowing the Good Shepherd who leads us through the dark valleys.

WARN THEM #5: THE AFTERMATH

a woman in my prayer group had a dream around the 2nd week of July, 2012. The next morning while praying about it, she had a vision of me up on the roof of the temple portico (see WARN THEM#1) calling people to come up higher. She heard, “Warn your brothers.” Here is the woman’s dream:

In the dream she was at the scene of a beach that had just experienced a tsunami wave. Devastation was everywhere. Trees were tossed around like toothpicks. White boats, blue boats were thrown around like splintered toys among the rubble. The boats represented ministries: white for holiness and blue for revelatory ministries. A huge tree – larger than life – had fallen, crushing a cruise ship under its heavy weight. The gnarled root ball of the tree was massive – bigger than any she had ever seen. As she looked at the tree she understood it was the Tree of Knowledge.

“Cruise Ship sea dwellers,” those who are at ease in Zion, are going to be crushed in the days to come if they lean on their own understanding and feed off the Tree of Knowledge instead of the Tree of Life, which is Jesus. We must allow the Lord to “crush” our propensity to act according to our own understanding so He can live in us. This is a time to test ourselves to see if we are truly in the faith and to be real about recognizing from which tree we are eating. Is Jesus really inside us (see 2 Corinthians 13:5)?

LATEST WARN THEM #6: 7-24-2012

In this most recent dream I was in a huge house on a high, high mountain. People were getting “groomed” in the house, symbolizing sanctification. I understood it was a place people went while pressing on to the “upward call of God in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 3:14 NASU). Some people in the house were starting to get a little lax – a little tipsy from “drinking in” the things of the world. I walked around the place holding onto a baby of mine named Faith.

Suddenly, I felt drawn to look out the window. Way down below I saw Jezebel and an army of her minions marching up the mountain. The mountain was miles up and I knew we had a little time. I decided to go around the house collecting things she would be drawn to. I alerted everyone to do the same. People just looked at me with vague expressions.

I found some flyers that mentioned political persons from the time of the Revolutionary War. On top of the pile was one about Alexander Hamilton. I saw George Washington’s name mentioned as well. I threw the flyers into a roaring fire.

Immediately after that Jezebel stormed in. She was wearing a red gown reminiscent of a medieval queen. Her minions went looking for people who had these flyers. They had found some flyers on a bus and had confiscated them. I was wondering why people hadn’t listened to me. They had had time to remove these things. Her minions were roughing up people found with these flyers. Jezebel ignored me as I clung onto Faith. End of dream.

While I was praying about the dream, the Lord told me the political flyers represented two things. The one on top, of top priority, with Alexander Hamilton’s name on it, represented those who are concerned about money. George Washington appointed Alexander Hamilton as Secretary of the Treasury.

God then told me Jezebel was dressed in red, medieval queen’s attire because she is after blood-bought Christians who are double minded, wavering between two opinions. Her desire was to thrust people into the “dark ages.” Scripture tells us, you can’t serve God and money. If God is God serve Him. Can money save us? If it could, we could serve it.

We must know who really is our provider. In the days to come when the economies of the world fall like a house of cards, will we fall with them or will we trust the God who fed His prophet by way of a raven?

While I was praying about the dream, the Lord told me the political flyers represented two things.

Tell Them/Warn Them

The other flyers represented those who are looking for the right political party to save America. They think that if the right candidate gets into office, all will go well. Those who are putting that flyer on their prayer wall are wagering on the wrong government.

Yes, Jesus at times calls godly men and women to serve Him in the political spectrum, and we need to be aware of what is going on in our country and around the world. We also need to be good citizens and cast our votes for righteousness. It's our civic duty. None-the-less, Jesus will save America and He's probably not going to do it the way we would like. There shall be no end to the increase of His government. His kingdom is coming!

The Lord told me while I was praying about this dream that good soldiers do not get entangled with the affairs of everyday life. I pray corporately around ten hours a week, and at times we pray for things in the political arena as the Lord leads us. If you are spiraling down because of the state of our country, you are fighting in the wrong revolution. You are part of the wrong army. Most likely your intercession is fear-based and therefore worthless.

The bus, in the dream, stands for a regional move of God. When God starts moving and our faith is in these other things, we can get "roughed up badly" by the enemy.

Jesus once asked whether He would find faith in the world when he comes back. It is impossible to please Him without faith. My faith was baby-sized, but be encouraged. Remember what Jesus said a mustard seed of faith can do! We must cling to Him through faith. We must fight the good fight, finish the course and hold on to our faith.

Jesus said at the end of the age men's hearts will fail them in anticipation of what is coming to the earth. Will we be in that group? Everything that can be shaken will be shaken. Will we be shaken, or will we, like David, trust in the Lord no matter what? "For the king trusts in the Lord, and through the lovingkindness of the Most High he will not be shaken" (Psalm 21:7 NASU).

I have had many other "Tell them/warn them" dreams and directives – too numerous to include in this writing. Suffice it to say, ultimately all point us toward renouncing our "foreign lovers" who cannot save us and giving our whole heart to the Lord our God, our strong tower – our very help in time of need. ■

Our Current Church Location

Planting Fields Arboretum
State Historic Park
1395 Planting Fields Road
Oyster Bay, NY 11771

Deep Waters Ministry
meets at the Greenhouse Classroom located in the Main Greenhouse (which is subject to change). Park in the West Parking lot. The Greenhouse is the first building in front of you.

All Are Welcome!

Sunday School is available.

Prophetic Intercessory Prayer:
Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday
9:30am - 11:30am
(call the office for location)

(Note: prophetic intercessory prayer is vital. We need to have an ear to hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches. Blind faith is not guess work. Faith comes by hearing: hearing the Word of Christ.)

Wednesday Evening Meeting:
7:00pm - 9:00pm
(call the office for location)

Sunday Service
Prophetic Intercessory Prayer:
9:00am - 10:00am
Worship Service: 10:00am
